SEMINAR REPORT

Topic: Program Outcomes-Course Outcomes (PO-CO) Mapping and Attainment

Organizing Department: IQAC, VIPW, Vijayawada.

Date: 22nd October, 2022

Time: 10.00 AM

Venue: Seminar Hall, VIPW

Resource Person: Dr. S. Sankar, Advisor, IQAC Cluster India

Participants: Faculty, VIPW

No. of Participants: 45

Objective of the Program:

The objective of the seminar is to establish clear linkages between the program outcomes and course outcomes within academic programs.

Overview of the Program:

It started with lighting of the lamp by dignitaries. Later, IQAC Coordinator Dr. S. Venkateswara Rao welcomed the gathering which was followed by an overview of the seminar. Succeeding that, principal, Dr. K. Padmalatha addressed and enlightened the gathering with her encouraging words. This was followed by the invited talk from Dr. S. Sankar, Advisor, IQAC Cluster India followed by question and answer session. The seminar was concluded with vote of thanks by IQAC coordinator followed by National Anthem.

Outcome of the Program:

The seminar focused on the process of mapping program outcomes (POs) with course outcomes (COs) and assessing their attainment to ensure alignment with the educational objectives of the institution. Dr. Sankar explained the importance of CO-PO mapping in designing curricula, preparing instruction, and ensuring quality assurance. Faculty members are actively discussing how to build clear connections between course outcomes (COs) and programme outcomes (POs), as well as developing assessment methods to quantify achievement. Dr. Sankar highlighted the significance of employing systematic mapping and assessment methods to improve the effectiveness of programmes and the achievement of student learning outcomes.

The seminar provided a platform for faculty members to exchange ideas, share experiences, and enhance their understanding of CO-PO mapping and attainment. The event contributed significantly to the professional development of faculty members and the enhancement of academic quality at VIPW.

SEMINAR REPORT

Topic: Exploring Bloom's Taxonomy

Organizing Department: IQAC, VIPW, Vijayawada.

Date: 29th April, 2023

Time: 10.00 AM

Venue: Seminar Hall, VIPW

Resource Person: Dr. S. Sankar, Advisor, IQAC Cluster India

Participants: Faculty, VIPW

No. of Participants: 45

Objective of the Program:

The objective of the seminar is to delve into Bloom's Taxonomy, a framework used to understand different levels of thinking and learning.

Overview of the Program:

It started with lighting of the lamp by dignitaries. Later, IQAC Coordinator Dr. S, Venkateswara Rao welcomed the gathering which was followed by an overview of the seminar. Succeeding that, principal, Dr. K. Padmalatha addressed and enlightened the gathering with her encouraging words. This was followed by the invited talk from Dr. S. Sankar, Advisor, IQAC Cluster India followed by question and answer session. The seminar was concluded with vote of thanks by IQAC coordinator followed by National Anthem.

Outcome of the Program:

Dr. Sankar provided detailed instruction to the participants on the hierarchical framework of Bloom's Taxonomy, elucidating its theoretical underpinnings and practical implementations in the field of education. He highlighted the potential of this framework for faculty members to enhance teaching methods, efficiently evaluate students' learning, and foster higher-order thinking abilities. During the seminar, participants actively participated in discussions about innovative teaching strategies and assessment techniques aligned with Bloom's Taxonomy. They exchanged ideas on methods to cultivate critical thinking and improve learning outcomes in their classrooms.

The seminar allowed educators to share ideas, learn from each other, and improve their teaching. Dr. Sankar's knowledge and attendees' enthusiastic engagement made the seminar a success, inspiring everyone to try innovative teaching methods. Overall, the seminar on "Exploring Bloom's Taxonomy" was instrumental in promoting professional development and fostering a commitment to improving pedagogical standards at VIPW.
