89 students from III B. Pharm have attended the training program. Mr. L. V. Gangadhar also explained the various skill parameters for effective learning. He also focussed on gesture and postures necessary in the field of profession. Amid the sessions, students delivered presentations on top Pharmaceutical Companies, Brand Names, Drug profiles, Eminent Pharmacists etc. which were evaluated by the Staff members. On the last day of the training program, an open feedback was taken from the students. The students expressed that this programme was more useful to face the challenges in this competent world. The management and Dr. K. Padmalatha, Principal of VIPW expressed the gratitude for sharing his expertise with students and thanked all the participants for making the training successful.

Mr. L. V. Gangadhar Rao was invited by Vijaya Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences for Women to conduct "Training on Soft Skills" for III. B. Pharm students from 22.06.15 - 25.07.15. The main motive of the training was to make the students aware of the skills gap and shortage found in the industry and the importance of cluster of personality traits, managing people, body language, leadership qualities and interpersonal skills. 83 students from III B. Pharm have attended this informative program. Mr. Gangadhar took interactive sessions where he explained the importance of soft skills learning and how they became most important in the corporate field. On the last day of training, Mr. Gangadhar conducted group activity programs among the students and invited Principal, Dr. K. Padmalatha to assess the group activity performance of the students. An open feedback from the students has been asked and they revealed that training was interesting and useful for their career and confessed that soft skills ensured them to be more productive. The management of VIPW, Dr. K. Padmalatha, Principal of VIPW expressed the gratitude to Mr. Gangadhar and Students for making the program fortuitous.
