Vijaya Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences for Women celebrated National Unity Day, which is celebrated in India every year on 31st of October. The day commemorates the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, who is a pivotal figure in India's struggle for Independence and the first Deputy Prime Minister and Home Minister of India. Chief guest Dr. K. Padmalatha, Principal, VIPW along with esteemed faculty members, staff and students gathered to pay tribute to the sacrifices of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel.

Chief guest Dr. K. Padmalatha, Principal, VIPW graced the occasion by delivering her speech highlighting the importance of National Unity Day, also known as Rashtriya Ekta Diwas. She mentioned that celebrating this day is an opportunity to every Indian citizen to celebrate strength and integrity that come from standing together as one nation. Unity is the foundation of our progress, and it is our collective responsibility to uphold the values of harmony, respect, and cooperation. As young minds and future leaders, you have the power to break barriers of caste, religion, and region, fostering an environment of inclusivity and brotherhood. Let us take inspiration from great leaders like Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, who dedicated his life to unifying our country. Remember, united we stand, divided we fall—so let's pledge today to work towards a stronger, more united India.

In our college Vijaya Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences for Women on the occasion of National Unity Day Drawing competition with theme "Strength in Unity, Progress in Diversity!" "One Nation, One Vision, One India!" was conducted among the students and most of the students have participated actively. The results of the held Drawing competition were announced and the winner is Ms. from Sparklers and runner is Ms. from Inspirers. Chief guest Dr. K. Padmalatha, Principal, VIPW congratulated all the students those who have actively participated in the event conducted and expressed her best wishes to all the winners. The program came to an end by singing the National Anthem.
